CONGRATULATIONS,

As Executive Director/Head Start Director and on behalf of the entire WCIC Family (Board of Directors, Staff, Membership, Volunteers, Partners, and Customers), we extend our sincere congratulations to the Women’s Civic Improvement Club of Sacramento, Inc. (WCIC) on the occasion of the organization’s 75th Anniversary.

We are pleased to acknowledge the congratulatory resolutions, letters, awards, and phone calls received from various leaders throughout the United States.

Since 1936, we believe that the Founding Mothers Legacy has been the beacon light for all those who want to follow their footsteps, as well as paved an ambitious and attainable set of goals for yesterday, today and tomorrow’s WCIC leadership, team and organization. This organization has set new standards in the field of social work and this has been possible only because of the Founding Mothers beacon light. We the workers of the later generations have been reading the history through the book entitled THE GRIOT, observing the Founding Mothers’ legacy of class and style, as well as learning a lot. The wisdom and merging of the three groups: Mondays Club, Sorosis, and Nothing Unless Good (NUG) have always been our ideal.

Over many decades, WCIC has aimed to promote excellence among human services professionals in Sacramento through Head Start Programs, Senior Nutrition Program, Low-Income Nutrition Program, Energy Program, Weatherization Program, Health/Project Survival Program, rigorous standards and an emphasis on ethical business practices. Representing more than 100 members, WCIC offers great opportunities to network, learn about community partnerships, exchange best practices and gain access to comprehensive resources. WCIC has worked hard to make the Sacramento communities, businesses and other institutions better places to live and work, and we add our voices to those honoring its 75 years of service. Thank you for your commitment to improving the Oak Park and Sacramento social services/resources in the Sacramento area.

Best wishes for much continued success in all endeavors. We wish you a joyous event, and much success in the years to come.

Once again hearty Congratulations!!!

Sincerely yours,
